I would like to write a review of a play called "Thunder". The plot comes from a book ~~call~~ which shares the same title. The author of the book is Ostrovsky. I will provide information about the characters, their costumes, story.

First, the characters. Let's start with Katerina. She is a sweet young woman with a huge heart and imagination, she tends to be highly religious. Her husband is a weak and not very smart man called Tihon, who really likes to drink. Katerina's true love is Boris, a young and handsome man who also really loves her. Then there is a pair of young and freedom-loving people - Varvara and Kudrash. During the story they will try to help Katerina and Boris with their love problem. The antagonists are cruel old people - Kabanika and Pikhoi. They are the people who are really critical and mean to others, always think that everyone is wrong except them, think that they are the smartest. Now, these are not all characters, but only the most important ones.

Now, about the costumes. They were really great and very well-made. Just by looking at clothes you could tell the characters: sort Katerina with a pretty dress, big and old Kabanika with a lot of layers of clothes and e.t.c.

The plot, while being really sad is beautiful. It tells about ~~hard~~ a hard life of Katerina. She loves Boris, but she is already married to Tihon, whose mother Kabanika tends to tell her cruel and mean things, which hurt her a lot. But But suddenly, Tihon is going away for a while, so Varvara thinks it's a perfect opportunity to unite Boris and Katerina. At first, Katerina feels happy, but then ~~red~~ After Tihon returned home, she felt terrified. Time passes, and she lets the cat out of a bag and tells that she cheated to everyone. Unable to live with such sin, she decides to drown herself.

All in all, this is a pretty tragic tale of a love, but a pretty one, and I recommend to see it. Lots of mixed emotions, both sad and happy are guaranteed

I've to the theatre ^{gr} on a play called "Romeo and Juliet" and now I want to tell about it and share my emotions.

"Romeo and Juliet" is a romantic play based on two people's desire to spend their lives together but it didn't exactly turn out as they would have ~~rather~~ ^{lex} liked. This play is nearly split up in half. There are two ~~groups~~ ^{gr} groups which are completely different: The Capulet's ^{gr} and the Montague's. Romeo ^{gr} a good-looking young ^{man} ~~image~~ is a Montague and always will be. He falls for a beautiful ^{gr} woman Juliet and everything is fine until he ^{gr} finds out that she is ^{gr} a Capulet.

The atmosphere that is created is ^{gr} not easy to sit through but it is still brilliant and audience ^{gr} reaction on what ~~had~~ ^{gr} happened was amazing. The costumes were very beautiful and they suited to the actors.

^{lex} I enjoyed this play very much and it was just a shame that I couldn't give it my full attention as I had to write notes. I ^{gr} thoroughly enjoyed my afternoon. I will recommend this play if you have free time. It worth ~~to~~ ^{gr} see.

WRITING

Theatre is a great place to visit if you feel the thirst for art. I did, ~~so I turned to~~ so a couple of weeks ago. ^{I paid a visit to the theatre it.} The play that I saw was called "Romeo and Juliet", which is based on the well-known tragedy of the same name.

The action of the play takes place in Verona in the sixteenth century and tells us a story of two young lovers, Romeo and Juliet. Their families are ~~are~~ feuding, ^{but} despite of that, they arrange a secret wedding. Once, Romeo kills Juliet's ~~cousin~~ cousin in unfortunate circumstances, and he is forced to leave the town.
Juliet can't imagine her life without him, so she commits suicide, which is followed by Romeo doing the same.

The script is well-written and ~~characters~~, ~~played~~ well-developed characters were played by gifted actors.
The graceful elaborate costumes are worth to be mentioned, too. ^{In spite of the tragic end} ~~At all, it is~~ the play was gripping and ~~amazing~~ breathtaking.

I strongly recommend the readers of the magazine to see ~~the~~ "Romeo and Juliet" in theatres. If you are a person who loves sentimental books and tragic stories, or ^{you} just wants to ~~entertain~~ spend your leisure time usefully, this play is for you!

gr Recently, I have watched a play in the theater of my city. The play was staged by the Moscow theater, which was on a tour at the time. It was based on "The Thunder" - one of the most iconic works of gr A. Ostrovsky.

I wouldn't say this play had too many characters. Those were all characters mentioned by Ostrovsky, not more, not less. One of the main characters, gr kabanova - is an old woman who lives according to prescribed instructions and never changes things. Her husband, Dickoy, is a wealthy but stupid man. They have kids - Varvara and Tikhon, and they are just like their parents. But Tikhon has a wife. Her name is Katerina, and she isn't fond of rules of kabanova.

The costumes were top-notch. Those were Russian costumes in any possible meaning of this word, with all classical elements - such as the long dress, piece of cloth that covers woman's hair and all those Russian patterns. And what's more, those costumes were just extremely similar to that I imagined prior to watching the play!

 The plot is n't something entirely new neither, ^{gr} it making an unexpected turn, but it is still interesting. Tikhon ^{gr} leaves the small town for Moscow, and Katherine starts walking with another man, Boris. Later, when Tikhon arrives, Katherine tells him the truth, inspired by the sound of thunder and an insane woman. She tried to keep those facts ^{gr} secret, but she couldn't. After telling the truth, she can't let it sink in, and, unable to find a solution, commits suicide by deliberately falling ~~off~~ the cliff into the Volga. The suicide is a protest against the rules of Kabanova.
 I would ~~also~~ recommend the play to other people. It was executed flawlessly, had amazing costumes and well-known actors!

WRITING

I declare myself a theatre lover, I have watched almost all the plays that you can imagine. Since childhood I have been used to visit the theatre every holiday in company of my favourite sidekick my mom. Actually a week ago I went to the theatre in order to watch the play of Bernard Shaw's novel "Pigmalion".

Pigmalion is the story of Eliza Tulittle, a simple and illiterate girl from the suburbs of London who sells flowers in London's train station and Professor Higgins, a very intelligent but cold person who decides to help Eliza become a lady from high society. That seems like a very generous thing to do but he is doing it not because he truly wants to help her but because he wants to show to his friend that he can transform Eliza from being a dirty, non-educated young lady to a gracious and elegant lady.

But when you spend a lot of time with other person you take a leap into the unknown and you take the risk of falling in love with that person, and that's exactly what happened to them.

As for the characters, the actors were fantastic, their play was so realistic that for a moment I thought that it was real life. Another thing that helped a lot were the costumes, they looked like they were from the exact time from when the book was wrote. I sincerely recommend you all to watch this play, it is a masterpiece.

WRITING

Recently, I have watched a play on TV. The title was "Eugeniya Onegin" by A. S. Pushkin. For those who don't know - "Eugeniya Onegin" is a worldwide known novel that was written by the most famous Russian writer - Alexander Sergeevich Pushkin. That play (just as novel) has four main characters: Eugeniya, Lenskiy, Olga and Tatiana. There are quite complex relationships between those characters. Tatiana is falling for Eugeniya but he does not loves her back. Lenskiy is dating Olga (who is also Tatiana's sister). Eugeniya and Lenskiy are friends (but we all know how it ends for Lenskiy). All actors in that play were in an old fashioned costumes, because actions takes part in XIX century. In those times in Russia all ladies were wearing dresses, while gentlemen were wearing black smokings. What can I say about the story? It is all about love, friendship and family. But I can tell you, there is no happy end. You don't want to have expectations for any characters, trust me. In conclusion I would like to recommend you that play. This is a story with a deep meaning, and you will definitely get some lesson from all of this. Also you will get tons of emotions, while you are reading this novel.

Do you like theatre? As for me, it is one of the most fascinating and marvelous ~~for~~ kinds of art. It ~~is~~ so exiting to watch ~~the~~ play when real people ^{Gr.} are acting right in front of you. You feel so many different emotions from happiness to sadness while watching on the scene. ⁵¹

Well, ~~or~~ I like theatre very much. I go to the theatre at least twice a month. I should ~~they~~ ^{say}, I have been to the theatre recently and watch a beauti- ^{Gr.} full play called "Master and Margarite". As you know, there is a book of famous Russian writer of the 20th centure Bulgakov with the same name ⁵⁶. So, the play had the same plot as in the novel "Master and Margarite". It is a story ^{about} of love, good and bad things that can happen ~~to~~ people, and, ^{Gr.} ofcourse, it is about magic. I could tell you a bit more about it but I gues that it will be better to read a book by yourself. ⁵⁸ ^{sp.}

There were two time lines in the story. So, ~~the~~ were different characters. Ofcourse, there were ^{Gr.} Master, Margarit, The Devil called Voland and a lot of supernatural creature s like witches and demons. As for me, my favourite character is a demon that looks like a big black cat. His name is Begemot. I like ⁵⁸ him because he is very funny. The actor who played him was a short man wearing a cat costume. Also a little black nose was drawn on his face.

By the way, costumes were fantastic. Women were wearing wonderful dresses of different colours and men were wearing suits that looked very stylish. In my opinion, the actor who played Voland had the best costume - awesome white suit.

So, I liked this play very much. All things in it were perfect: actors, costumes, decorations, plot, music. And I would go to watch it again with a great pleasure. Of course, I advice you to go and watch this lovely play too.

lex. Past *M*onday I have been to sp.
wonderful play in Gr. Belgorod theatre.
I've seen Alexander Pushkin's
"Boris Godunov".

This tragedy takes place in medieval Russia. That time was really bad for Russia. Tsar Feodor is dead and his only son Dmitry is dead.
The old dynasty is ~~not~~ doesn't exist now. So, Boris Godunov who didn't Gr. had tsars' blood became a tsar. But there's a stain on his soul. Boris has killed little Dmitry to become the leader of the country. In this time monk Grigory Otrepiev acts like Gr. ~~him~~ he is killed tsar Dmitry to make his life better.

I totally loved the version of "Boris Godunov" that have seen Gr.
in Belgorod theatre. While watching lex.
you completely immerse in the atmosphere of medieval Russia. Actors really live on the scene.
Costumes were made very accurately

Each detail worked on the creating of the atmosphere. Decorations also ^{fr.} were [✓] made in very interesting way. They were not very detailed because artist ~~fr~~ ^{fr} created them in impressionistic way. Both costumes and decorations had a lot of dark colours in them to show "not the best" times in the history of Russia.

I ^{will} recommend Pos. "Boris Godunov" to everyone who loves russian ^{sp.} history and classic russian literature. It is wonderful play with ^{sp.} thrilling plot and many interesting characters. ²¹⁴ ^{снова}

I have recently watched a play "Even a wise man stumbles" by Ostrovsky. The play was held on the 11th of October in the Theatre of Shephkin in Belgorod.

The main idea of the play is to show us that we should not judge the person by ~~the~~ his/her appearance, we should appreciate his character and attitude towards the most valuable things in life such as love, friendship and others. The story tells us about senior Glumov, who appears to be a handsome gentleman in the beginning of the play. But in the end it becomes clear that he is a greedy and unreliable person.

The play lasts for 1.5 hours and has an unexpected ending. I am sure, you won't take your eyes off the stage, because the acts are very fascinating. The characters are well-developed and their actions are appealing to people's feelings. The background supplies are well-designed and the lightning over the stage is full of different bright colours. The costumes of ~~the~~ the characters are very bright and eye-catching.

I would recommend this play to people of all ages. I am sure that everyone will be satisfied

WRITING

A few weeks ago I have been to a city theatre with my classmates. The play we watched was called "Thunder" and its author is Ostrovsky. I have a lot to say about it, so here is my review.

To begin with, I enjoyed the plot. The main character of the play is Catherine. While watching, we see her struggle with society of a town full of stupid and selfish people. Catherine's riots against her mother-in-law's judgements outcomes as her love for Boris. However, soon she feels guilty for betraying her husband and confesses her sin during thunder. Personally, I liked Catherine more than any other character. Actress portrayed her complex character amazingly. She managed to look hopeful and sad at the same time. Costumes have showed characters in their way, too. For example, cruel Kabanova was wearing dark clothes, while Catherine had dress as light as her dreams.

If you ever have an opportunity to see this play, you should not miss it. It gives a detailed picture of what ~~the~~ life looked like in the past. Besides, it is always more interesting to watch a play than to read a scenario book. To my mind, theatre workers did a really good work with "Thunder" and especially Catherine.

WRITING

I would like to write a review of the play st play I st saw recently. It is "Storm" by Ostrovsky, one of the greatest russian dramatists.

The story is based on the events and life of common russian people in the nineteenth century. The main character is a young woman, who had to become a wife of the ^{Lex} businessman ("kupts") st. She belonged to the upper classes of russian society, which is called "dворянство". Another important person in this play is his powerful and despotic mother, the head of the family. She really hated her son's wife and abused her and other family members.

One day, this young married lady met a man. They both fell in love with each other. But social rules at that time ^{Lex} would not let them have any kind of relationships. Although, love seemed to be stronger than people's opinions.

The main character felt her guilt and was slowly becoming more and more anxious. She thought she deserved the punishment, ^{Lex} so, at the end of all, she decided to drop out of everything and end up with life. ^{Lex.}

I should say, I was very impressed by actors' skills and the costumes. They represented the historical period greatly.

I definitely recommend "Storm" by Ostrovsky.

This play brilliantly ^{lex.} embraces the vital problems, the issues of social inequality and stereotypes, so it is worth seeing.

Nicolay Vasilyevich Gogol is one of the most famous Russian writers. He is known for his outrageous novels. „Dead souls“ is one of them. Some time ago I was honored to see the so-called play in the Grand Theatre. Chichikov is the main character of this novel. He is a typical Russian man looking for glory and money. All the actions happen ~~it~~ in the 19th century.

I have read the novel before, so I knew what Chichikov is and could imagine his appearance. I can tell you that it is better than one can dream about. You totally get into ~~the~~ play because of great costumes too. People who were in duty for them did their job very well. Actors are amazing as well. They are ~~not~~ playing, the are telling a story! As I have already said. Nicolay Gogol is author to this masterpiece and all his novels are amazing. This one is not an exception. It tells us about tough times in Russia, where everyone is doing their best to survive (even if it is illegal).

Having all things considered, I totally recomend not only watching a play in the Big Theatre but reading the novel itself, so that you can get the maxim maximum pleasure from it.

Recently, I have been to the theatre. I watched a really good play "Romeo and Juliet" by famous writer Shakespeare. This is the story about two people, who are in love with each other, but they can't be together, because their families have a conflict.

The play started with unforgettable opening. The meeting of main characters was so touching. There were a lot of good actors who played other roles. The actor's playing was great. It took me to an atmosphere of those times. Costumes were made very well. I think costumers used special fabric to make such interesting clothes for actors. Juliet were different dresses which were detailed very good. This twisted love story contained both funny and sad moments. Also there were a lot of cruel moments. First of all, there were lots of deaths and battles between two families. Furthermore, in the plot of original story main characters died. That was the best moment of the play. Romeo mistakenly thought that Juliet died and he did a suicide to meet her on heaven. When Juliet woke she drank poison and died.

To sum up, I really like this play. That was an example of unbreakable love. I would highly recommend this play for people who like romantic stories. People who prefer detectives and crime stories won't get it. This play should be seen watched by most of people.

Not long ago I have seen "Romeo and Juliet" at our city's theatre. This play was written by famous playwright William Shakespeare. and is one of his best-known and significant works.

The narration of this drama is set in one beautiful Italian town named Verona. Romeo and Juliet who are ~~was~~ the main characters of this play live there. One day they fall in love with each other at first sight. but there is ~~an~~ ~~one~~ ~~at~~ a serious problem. Both of them belong to two different warring families which do not allow them to have relationship. Moreover, Juliet's family wants her to marry to one old and rich man.

In my opinion, the characters of this story are strong, emotional and well-developed. You can feel their love, sadness, despair and other emotions. The actors of the play I have seen are professional ones as they have given me an impression of being in Verona ~~alive~~

I would like to tell you about a play I have watched recently. It was a great experience, so I want to share my emotions and thoughts with other people.

I went to a theatre with my friend, because we had heard about a new play based on the book we both loved. It was „Oblomov“. This play was expected to be as interesting as the book, so we decided to watch it. And we didn't regret!

Firstly, the performance was absolutely amazing! We've already known the plot, because we have read the book, but this play refreshed our memories and made them even more vivid.

Secondly, the actors were great! They made us believe that they are characters from the book who became alive. I loved the actor who played the main character - Oblomov. He acted so realistic!

Finally, the costumes were fantastic. All of them were hand-made and looked like in the book.

All in all, I strongly recommend this play to other people. You must watch it, because it is unbelievably absolutely breath-taking!
